BROADWAY BAPTIST CHURCH

MAY 2021

Beloved Broadway,

These are good days in our church family. We are sharing more opportunities to see one another and this has given this Covid-weary extrovert's heart a big boost. Seeing so many faces (albeit, masked for the time being) for Maundy Thursday Communion and Easter Sunday Outdoor worship was like water in the wilderness. As I think back over the week, I am deeply moved by the number of people I heard. Overwhelmingly, the primary request we heard after Holy Week was "let's get outside more!" I find it interesting that it took a Global Pandemic for churches to worship in the original cathedral: God's good creation. So, the Pastoral Team is planning to resume outdoor Wednesday Night Vespers in May, in addition to our regularly scheduled in-Sanctuary Sunday service and our continued virtual offerings. I look forward to gathering with you once again under the beautiful, blue vault of God's immaculately designed cathedral of creation.

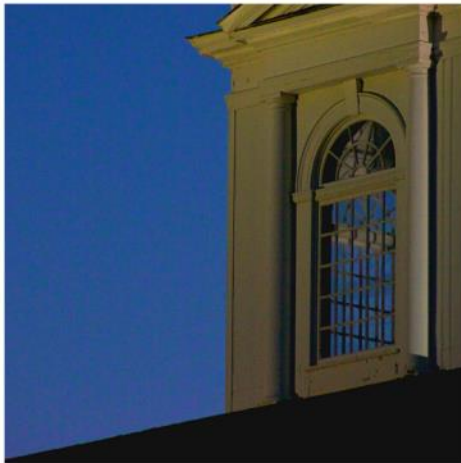

To the right is a sneaky shot shared with us from our beloved church member and Financial Manager Sarah Sanders taken by her much taller husband, Jeff Sanders. Using the steps which have been roped off since a bad freeze as a chancel seemed right. Reclaiming forgotten space for sacred purpose.

Filling grass and grounds where people normal park and immediately exit with hearts, prayers, and followers of Christ gathered under the glory of the skies.

Also, one last word about our Faith + Mental health webinars. I could never have imagined how meaningful and impactful these conversations would be. Thank you for the contacts sharing with me the stories churned up for you in these important conversation. So many of our lives are touched by the inner battles we or those we love are fighting. A special thanks to Leslie Townsend who serves tirelessly to support our church family. If you would like to reach out to her, please do not hesitate to send an email to leslietownsend@twc.com. Also, a thank you to Nora Garner-Sinclair and Leslie Cashion for bringing their expertise to the table. I look forward to our future conversations in the months ahead. Stay tuned for a schedule of topics!

Grace & Peace,
Pastor Kevin
