All Saints Sunday, November 3

All Saints Day is a time to remember those who have died in the faith of Christ. On Sunday, November 3, we will observe All Saints Day by reading scripture, singing songs, lighting candles and thanking God for the saints who have gone before us. More specifically, we will read aloud the names of those church members who have died since the previous All Saints service. And, ever mindful that many of you also grieve losses in your families outside the membership here at Broadway, there will be a time for others to be remembered as well.

All proceeds from these 2 cookbooks go to Broadway's Kitchen Fund. This fund helps supplement the annual kitchen budget, for instance by purchasing a new freezer a few years ago. Tina Burress donates her cookbook so all sales from the Gracious Plenty Cookbook go to this fund.

A letter from the pastor

Who among us doesn't love to complain about the weather?

My cashier at Kroger the other day gave me some wise words as we talked about the weather:

"People say, 'It's too hot,' in the summer, and 'It's too cold,' in the winter. They're only happy a few weeks out of the year. People just like to complain."

I felt a twinge of conviction at my cashier's critique of the human condition and my own susceptibility to Goldilocks Syndrome. Those familiar words of Psalm 118 rang in my ear: "This is the day that the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it."

Which day? This day.

In the rhythm of the Liturgical Calendar, November marks the end of Ordinary Time. This is the space between Pentecost and Christ the King Sunday, the last Sunday before Advent. There might not seem to be anything extraordinary about Ordinary Time.

Although, November begins with remembrance and concludes with gratitude. First, we begin the month with All Saints Day, as we honor and celebrate the faithful dead who are now alive in Christ. On this day, we not only remember our loved ones but the great cloud of witnesses who continue to bless us from the balconies of beyond. Then, we conclude the month with Thanksgiving—not a religious feast but a beloved celebration which coincides with the beginning of Advent. As the winds grow cold in the Ohio River Valley, we take stock and prepare ourselves for the germinating effects of winter.

During this November, I hope you find time to mark new milestones in your faith journey between the remembrance of All Saints and the gratitude of Thanksgiving. Take a moment to look at the year gone by and begin to dream about the year ahead. Take a deep breath this day before you blink and realize it is already New Year's Day.

This is the day the Lord had made. Let us rejoice in be glad for today. Tomorrow will bring its own joy and struggle. Even when the weather is frightful, may your home glow warm and heart grow faithful as you rejoice in the gift of today.—Pastor Kevin

Sale of Ornaments for 150th Anniversary

We are getting excited as we prepare to celebrate the 150th Anniversary of Broadway Baptist Church in 2020. To commemorate this special occasion we have designed a beautiful Christmas ornament. The ornaments will be for sale starting November 17th and will run through December 22nd. They will be for sale after worship on Sunday mornings and on select Wednesday nights. The ornaments are $20 each and are a fundraiser to help cover some of the costs of the Anniversary celebration next April. The ornament is a special keepsake to hang on your tree and something you will cherish for years to come.

DID YOU KNOW... WE WERE COOL?

One Sunday morning we learned the air-conditioning was not working in the sanctuary. Lois (Boyle) Gibbs and I decided to take off our dresses before putting on our choir robes so we could be cooler. About mid-way through the service, during the prayer, John Sims stood up and whispered to the choir, "You may take off your robes." Lois and I issued audible gasps. Needless to say, after the prayer, we were the only two choir members still in robes.

Dear Broadway Family,

Thank you for all the love and support you gave our mother through the years. You never forgot her! Every week since she moved to Black Mountain she has received a card or note from friends at Broadway. I would read the cards to her over and over and her eyes would light up when she heard familiar names. She would say, "yes, he was my driver," or "she was in my Sunday School class." We are fortunate that mother was able to enjoy a big family reunion this summer to celebrate her 105th birthday. She was active, loving and positive right up to the end. She never forgot her friends at Broadway. A heartfelt thanks to each of you from all the Graves family. With love and appreciation, Cannan Graves Hyde

December 15 (if you are unable to bring items on December 15 you may bring them to the plastic bins in the Atrium, Friendship Hall, and the Church Office before December 15). If you can donate money to help purchase the perishable items, you may do so by placing a check in the offering plate or sending it to the church office with the memo line: "Christmas food donations."
