A Letter from the Pastor...

Beloved Broadway,

John August Swanson is one of my favorite Mexican-Swedish-American artists born in California (Okay, he's my only favorite). His paneled painting depicting the story of Ruth & Naomi became a backdrop for our Wednesday Night Bible Study on Ruth this Fall. Below is his work "Festival of Lights" painted in 1991. What I love about this image from Swanson is how it reminds us that just a little light, when shared, can brighten the darkest of nights.

On November 6, we will gather for All Saints' Day to worship God and honor our faithful departed by lighting candles and speaking their names aloud. This is one of my favorite moments we share in worship throughout the rhythm of the Church Calendar. Rituals provide opportunities for us to mark significant liminal spaces in our lives. The Family Systems Theorists Dr. Murray Bowen and Rabbi Ed Friedman call these "nodal moments" which are milestones in our lives. Births, weddings, and deaths; these are liminal spaces where we cross a threshold from becoming to being and we mark them with rituals. When a person comes from being single to espoused, we make that with a ritual—a wedding. When a person goes from being in relationship with a loved one to not having that loved one anymore we mark that experience with a ritual—a funeral.

Rituals aren't magic, but they help us tangibly express the inward reality of the Holy Spirit's work in our lives. Sometimes that inward reality is the experience of God's grace, Christ's sacrificing, and the Holy Spirit's inclusion of all God's children into the Family of God; we mark that reality with a ritual we call the Lord's Supper. On All Saints', we will light candles and speak aloud the names of those who we dear love and have lost this year. Our faith in Christ promises to us that death is not the end of the story, but that doesn't mean that we shouldn't grieve or express our emotions. Our feelingfulness as humans is a gift that gives us the power of connection. When we go through shared experiences and emotions, we bond and know that we are not alone in our grief. The promise of Scripture is, according to Paul in 1 Thessalonians 4:13, "we grieve, but not as those without hope."

After we share the names of those in our Broadway family who have died in this past year, we invite everyone who has lost a loved one to come forward, light a candle, speak their name, and then we will share Communion together. In these simple rituals, we bread bread, shine light, and remind each other of the promise made by Christ to creation in Revelation 21:5, "Behold, I am making all things new!"

I hope and pray as the Autumn winds turn to Winter chill, the peace of God warms you from the inside out and you find quiet, sacred moments to breathe deep, be still, and know that God is near.

Grace & Peace,

-Kevin

As many of you know, our Stewardship Campaign is coming to a close. That said, we are still happily accepting pledge cards. The pledge boxes will remain in the Narthex, the Atrium and the church office for the next few weeks. Feel free to also drop your card in the offering plate, mail or visit the website and use the Pledge Now button on the homepage.

Thank you for your continued support and commitment to Broadway Baptist Church. Through 10/31/22 we have a total pledged amount of $ 539,692. If you have not turned in your pledge card yet, please prayerfully consider it.

Dear Broadway Baptist Team,

Wow! What a difference! Thank you so much for your hard work on Sunday, September 11. I know the mulch jobs weren't glamorous, but thanks to you all, things look SO much better. We truly appreciate that you chose to spend your day of service with West End School.

Thanks again & God bless,

Katy Bade

(and a follow up email that said: "Hope you're doing well! Just FYI we have already enjoyed one of the casseroles - spaghetti and meatballs! The BEST and very much appreciated!")

Dear Broadway Baptist Church.

Thank you for your recent donation to Kentucky Refugee Ministries (KRM). Your support comes at a critical time as KRM is serving more refugees and immigrants than at any time in our organization's 33-year history.

Earlier this year, with intensive help from our volunteer supporters, KRM mobilized to resettle nearly 500 emergency evacuees from Afghanistan. On a weekly basis, we are now enrolling Ukrainians at all three KRM offices (Louisville, Lexington and Covington) who have fled the horrific invasion of their country and have been sponsored for protection in the U.S. by Ukrainian-American family members here in Kentucky.

As much as ever, we at KRM maintain the conviction that extending welcome - beyond the moral imperative for doing so - benefits Kentucky as a whole. We thank you for your generosity and for partnering with KRM to build inclusive, welcoming communities in our state.

Sincerely,

John A. Koehlinger

All are welcome, and we welcome input in selecting where we want to hike each month.
